

ECPA Masterclass

« Advocacy and Leadership »

When: 5th November 2026 - 11.00/12.00

Where: Online (a link will be sent to the participants)

Outline

With increased competition to get “air” and “ear” time, organisations seeking to influence policy-making need advocates with the intellectual courage to think and do things differently. This session will guide participants through an assessment of their own unique leadership style and offer practice in self-reflexivity, identification and alignment of their personal values.

Outcomes

Participants will increase their self-awareness, gain clarity and strengthen their confidence in their own leadership journey through exercises designed to identify and better understand one's own leadership strengths and areas for growth as a leader.

Guest: Claudia Seymour, Head of Applied Research, Geneva Graduate Institute

Dr. Claudia Seymour is an applied social researcher with more than 25 years of experience, working primarily in conflict-affected environments. She has extensive experience working as a research consultant for a range of international NGOs and think tanks.

The event is free for all ECPA members and their staff.
